A campaign to stop violence, enditnow®, is a global campaign to raise awareness and advocate for the end of violence around the world. It aims to mobilize Adventists around the world and invites other community groups to join in to address this worldwide issue.

Renamed enditnow® Emphasis Day in 2014, the fourth Sabbath in August was originally designated Abuse Prevention Emphasis Day when Annual Council added this day to the worldwide church calendar. General Conference Women’s Ministries (GCWM) coordinates the production and distribution of the enditnow® Emphasis Day resource packets.

The seven departmental co-sponsors for enditnow® are:
- Children’s Ministries
- Education
- Family Ministries
- Health Ministries
- Ministerial Association
- Women’s Ministries
- Youth Ministries

The enditnow® Emphasis Day will provide an opportunity for local churches to address the issue of violence against women, to educate church members and leadership, to facilitate awareness in their communities, and to let victims know that their church cares about them.

The General Conference Women’s Ministries Scholarship Program is established to give scholarships to women who are committed to serving the mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church who would otherwise be unable to afford a Christian education. Scholarship awards are based on academic achievement, financial need, and community outreach.

Thinking Well, Living Well Program is a series of ten seminars about mental health to help women talk openly and compassionately about this subject. Many women in the Seventh-day Adventist Church suffer silently, live in pain and shame, and may even leave the church because they feel God has forsaken them. The time has come for the church to become educated and to recognize when members need help, hope and healing.

The manual and PowerPoint may be downloaded at women.adventist.org/thinking-well-living-well.

These issues affect women in and outside of the church, in all countries of the world, although often to different degrees.

1. Abuse
2. Poverty
3. Threats to Health
4. Workload
5. Lack of Training, Mentoring and Leadership Opportunities
6. Illiteracy

These challenges are opportunities for us to minister to the women around us. For more information on what you can do in your church and community to address these needs, visit the Women’s Ministries website.
