"We have different gifts, according to the grace given us" (Romans 12:6, NIV).

B=B (BIBLE = BAPTISM) MINISTRY

What is it?

B=B (Bible=Baptism) Ministry challenges women in the church to choose a relative or friend who could find greater happiness in knowing the Word of God. The participating church member will commit:

- To study the Bible with one interested person (B=B recipient).
- To prepare the B=B recipient for baptism by the end of the year.
- To pray for the B=B recipient whose name is also added to the Women's Ministries prayer list.

Each participating church member is given a Bible, a set of Bible study guides, and a baptismal certificate for a woman who will receive Bible studies. She is also given a B=B enrollment card to complete and return; it functions as her commitment card.

How to Begin

- Pray. In Women's Ministries meetings pray specifically for B=B Ministry.
- Present the project to the pastor and elders.
- Select the date to begin the year-long event.
- Negotiate the purchase of Bibles and Bible studies through the church or by other means and prepare the materials, including the B=B enrollment card.
- Launch the project by inviting women church members to commit to studying the Bible for one year with one person. Participants who accept the challenge will complete and return the B=B enrollment card.
- Commission the participants in the B=B Ministry during a divine service. Distribute the Bibles with Bible study guides, baptismal certificates, and participant enrollment cards. Dedicate the participating women with a prayer of consecration.

“In the various branches of the work of God's cause, there is a wide field in which our sisters may do good service for the Master. The labours of such Christian women are needed” (Ellen G White, Review and Herald, Dec. 10, 1914).
