In February, you helped send $59,550 in scholarships to 116 outstanding Adventist women, supporting their dreams of higher education. The women, from 40 countries—from Bangladesh and Bulgaria to Vanuatu and Zimbabwe—attend 46 different schools.

YOU make it possible! These 116 women, and all 14 of us on the GCWM Scholarship Committee, appreciate your generosity and support. You show women in every Division they are not alone in their struggle for an education.

Your gifts bless women such as...

Svetlana, an excellent student majoring in Economics in Russia, who, although she works long hours to pay tuition, still participates in mission projects, visiting nursing homes and orphanages.

Jane, studying for her MA in Leadership at Adventist University of Africa, Kenya, has contributed immensely to her church as Chaplain, Women’s Ministries Director, motivational speaker, and evangelist.

Desalech, a theology major in Ethiopia. With her small salary, she supports her siblings who are orphans. An exemplary worker, she is involved in Prison Ministry, Women’s Ministries, and giving Bible studies.

Thank you for blessing Isolina in Costa Rica, Mioty from Morocco, Valerie in Fiji, Rahl from Egypt, and Sarah in Texas…and for blessing all the lives these women will bless!

YOU DID IT! You met the challenge to raise $5,000 by December 31. That means an additional matching $5,000 for scholarships. Thank you!
A FIGHTER’S SPIRIT

Hanana, a student from Sudan attending Middle East University in Lebanon, plans to be a teacher. A talented translator since she knows Arabic and English well, she is also active in Sabbath school, college activities, and her community. She says, “I take water to the poor people, and if I have any money, I buy food for them.”

A HEART FOR SERVICE

A student missionary says, “She has a heart for service and mission. Her love for people is tremendous. She knows how to lead people to Christ. She has the attributes of a leader, and she helps keep this campus alive by her sincere friendships, prayer, and work for its growth and cleanliness.”

THE GIFT OF DETERMINATION

A teacher adds, “Hanana has a fighter’s spirit. I mean this in the most positive way. She doesn’t give up. She consistently works hard to achieve her goals. I admire her tenacious spirit. She appears quiet, but deep inside there resides a very determined person who understands the power of education.”

Thank you for helping to provide Sudan with a strong, caring teacher.
