ALL I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS…

Save yourself from another cutesy mug, gift basket of lotions you’ll never use, or 5-lb. fruitcake.

Let family, friends and co-workers know the Christmas gift you really, really want is their donation to Scholarshipping Our Sisters!

A gift of $200 helps Anthia in India study nursing. Or $140 buys books for Rahil, education major in Egypt. And $50 tells Daniela in Colombia her sisters care.

Checks may be made out to GC Women’s Ministries Scholarships, and mailed to 12501 Old Columbia Pike, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

Gamila graduated from Middle East University. Married to an Egyptian pastor, she has one daughter, and now enjoys her work as a kindergarten teacher at the church elementary school.

At age 43, Jowana received her Graduate Diploma in Lifestyle Medicine. Living in Fiji, she completed her course work totally online, while also being the sole breadwinner and caring for her husband and five children. Those who know her call Juwana “a confident leader and tireless worker.”

Delma, an education major in the Philippines, now is delighted teaching her little charges at the preschool at Pasay Adventist Church Elementary School.

Guests at OpportuniTEA enjoyed an elegant tea, featuring scones, tea sandwiches, and mini-desserts. Beautiful flowers enhanced this September fund-raiser at Sligo Church in Takoma Park, MD.

Many thanks to the 30 helpers who made this event both delicious and successful, raising $2300 for women’s scholarships.

“I will keep searching and pray that God will lead me to people in need.”

IN CAMBODIA

Chanlina loves learning, but poverty kept her from attending high school. Later her pastor-husband helped her complete her high school.

STARTING OVER
Since her credits were not accepted in Cambodia, she had to start over, struggling to pay tuition on a pastor’s meager salary and with their young son to care for.

Chanlina has an opportunity to study—if you and I provide just $850 for tuition. Can we give our sister this opportunity?

At this Christmas season, remembering The Gift above all other gifts, YOU and I are blessed to give the gifts of dreams, success, encouragement, and love—to our sisters and to those they will bless.

“IT IS MY DREAM TO OPEN AN ORPHANAGE,” says Gimena, studying accounting at Bolivia Adventist University. Through her literature evangelism ministry she saw many miracles that assured her God was with her. What a wonderful gift YOU can give to the orphans that Gimena will care for as, with God’s guidance, she fulfills her dream.

THE BEST GIFT IS...
YOU!

In Congo, Kahite excels as a colporteur while also attending university full time and caring for her family. She is lauded as a “brilliant student” in computer science. But her husband is unemployed, and Kahite needs your help to complete her degree. YOU CAN give Kahite the gift of success!

Ha Yeong looks forward to graduating in two years with a major in psychology and becoming a school counselor to help students in crisis. She chose this major after losing a friend to suicide while in high school. YOU can give young people in Korea a well-trained, caring counselor.
